

Feel the excitement!

Legendary Adventures II brings you priceless hunting memories from sportsmen who like to share their experiences.

Outstanding stories from across the U.S., Canada by adventurous hunters that enjoy being in the wild outdoors and discovering God's wonderful creation...

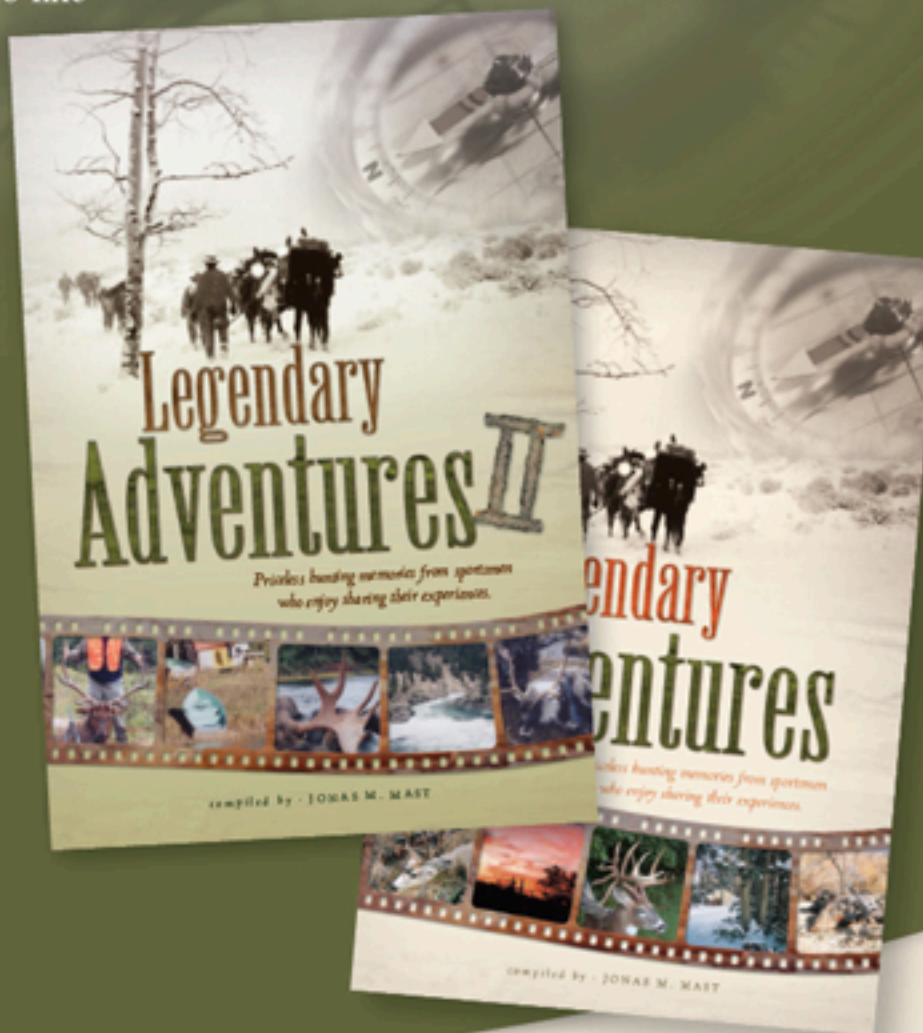

Floating down river after hunting and almost capsizing the canoe with all the gear plus the prize of the hunt...

The tall grass 30 feet in front of you parts and you come eye to eye to a mountain lion with only a homemade bow, hatchet and a knife...

Taking a float plane back into the wilderness of Newfoundland to hunt Moose and Caribou...

Sleeping at 7,000 ft on a mountain, under a tarp, with wind and rain all night, when muddy water finds its way around, under and into your sleeping bag...

Hunting for bear alone in the deep woods of Canada when a bear charges up your tree and you get clawed in the leg!
