

A woman with short reddish hair, wearing a white sleeveless top and dark pants, stands in a vast lavender field. She has her arms raised in a celebratory gesture. The field is filled with rows of purple lavender plants, and a dirt path leads through them. In the background, there are rolling hills and mountains under a blue sky with scattered white clouds.

CELEBRATE!

the generous, joyful life of Lucy Lanz
December 6, 1950 - September 15, 2011

Lucy's life has always been full of family and friends, laughter and love.

"Bring joy to your servant, for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul." (Psalm 86:4)

This verse became Lucy's heartfelt prayer and her lifelong testimony.

During her final two weeks, when fear threatened to steal the joy of a life well lived, Lucy found comfort in reading and rereading these verses from God's Word:

Isaiah 41:10

"Do not fear, for I am with you. Do not be afraid, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my victorious right hand."

Lucy will be deeply missed, but we look forward to a joyful reunion one day on heaven's shore. In the meantime, we celebrate her kind heart, her generous spirit, her active faith. And we praise God for the legacy of blessing she left in so many lives.

Philippians 4:6

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.
